Miss Hazel Burton of Norborne received an all but not fatal injury hallowe'en at a party. Her dress caught on fire and she was burned terribly. Had it not been for the presence of mind of Mr. Runyan, at whose house the party was in progress, she would have burned to death. He put out the flames and saved Miss Burton from fatal injury.

Lafe Hannon of Norborne had his steam outfit running a corn shredder. The boiler blew up and Hannon was badly scalded. The full force struck him in the breast and the result was that he was frightfully burned and knocked fully 20 feet away. Ed Kincheloe was slightly burned, and Claude Ballard, who was sitting on a wagon some distance away, was knocked off of the wagon. Hannon's injuries are very serious.

Park Griswold, who lives near Hale, killed and brought to town one day this week a rabbit which was truly a freak. The rabbit was like any other common wild rabbit with the exception of its lower front teeth which grew out and formed a perfect semi-circle, terminating when the animal's mouth was closed, nearly on its head. How it ate with such teeth is another mystery which no one who saw the strange freak has been able to figure out.

Garfield Nunley, col., overloaded with booze created quite a disturbance in Carrollton about noon Tuesday. Wm. Miller, a special police, attempted to quiet Nunley, and he became even more abusive. Miller attempted to arrest him and he resisted, knocking Miller down and kicking him. Miller jumped to his feet and started after Nunley, who had taken to his heels. Miller followed as far as the Root school-building, shooting once, but failing to wing his man. Policeman Neet took up the chase and also fired a shot at the fleeing negro, but his shot also went wild. Nunley was arrested and taken before the police judge where he was released on bond. His trial will come up Wednesday morning.

The sheep killing dog is in the land again, as usual about this time of year, and, as usual, the farmer and stock-raiser are making it quite interesting for the average canine in his respective neighborhoods. Last week Mr. Rube Long had eight head of sheep killed and 18 badly crippled. A. W. Morrison had 10 head of native ewes killed and a number crippled.
